

COL. LAMB IS DEAD

Hero of Fort Fisher Succumbs at Norfolk.

VIRGINIA REPUBLICAN LEADER

With 1,900 Men He Held 10,000 Federal Troops at Bay Near Wilmington, N. C.—For Years a Familiar Figure in Norfolk and the Political Circles of Virginia.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Norfolk, Va., March 23.—Col. William Lamb, "hero of Fort Fisher," who for fifty years has figured prominently in Norfolk's commercial and political life as a lawyer, editor, merchant, candidate for Congress and collector of customs, died here to-day, aged eighty-three years.

Col. Lamb was one of the best-known figures in Norfolk. He was also a staunch and uncompromising Republican. Even in the days when party feeling ran high in this section of Virginia Col. Lamb, though a Republican leader, commanded the respect of the Democrats who were fighting him and his party.

Col. Lamb made his last appearance on the stump in the Congressional race last fall. Then he was chairman of the Republican city convention, and though weak and infirm from age, he made a ringing speech. In that speech he expressed gratitude that the day had come when a man could be a Republican in Virginia and be respected by all.

Col. Lamb was known as the "hero of Fort Fisher." During the civil war, in a siege of three days he held the fort near Wilmington, N. C., with 1,900 men against 10,000 attacking Federal troops on land and 600 guns on water. Gen. Butler and Porter losing more men than Col. Lamb commanded. This feat endeared him to the South, and he is commemorated as such.

Col. Lamb has served Norfolk City as its mayor. Several times he has led the Republicans in the fight for Congress. He was a delegate at large to several Republican national conventions, and vigorously stumped Virginia for Blaine and Logan. He often refused nominations for high offices at the hands of the Republicans, preferring to fight the battle in the ranks and not as a seeker of office.

Col. Lamb at one time was the agent of the Norfolk and Western Railway at Norfolk, and was responsible for the construction of the line to Lambert's Point, where the mammoth coal piers were constructed.

DEMOCRATS PLAN FIGHT

Maryland Central Committee to Meet to Consider Amendment Battle.

Baltimore, Md., March 23.—Chairman Vandiver will send out a call next week for a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee. The date has not yet been fixed by Mr. Vandiver, but the law requires ten days' notice of such a call. The State central committee cannot therefore meet before the third week in April.

At this meeting a date will be fixed for the State convention, which will name a candidate for State controller. Plans will also be formulated for the amendment fight, and the date of the judicial primaries in the various circuits will be fixed.

The new primary election will necessitate the consideration of many questions with which the party managers are not familiar. It is believed by Mr. Vandiver that the meeting will be a protracted one.

Under the new primary law each county fixes the date for the primaries in the respective counties, but these dates will be controlled by the date of the State convention. The second Monday in September is the day after which no primaries can be held in the counties, but the time in the city is extended one week.

The Harmony of Home

Does Not Mingle With or Emanate from the Table of Dyspepsia.

In the home, meal time should be a time of joy which will make for the home the dining place of joy and interest and happiness. If one mingles the dinner table with out of sorts, his influence is felt and the harmony is lacking. Conversation and mirth are absent. Devoicing thoughts assail the diners and silence prevails.

"At the Dyspeptic's Table Ominous Quiet and Gloom Crowd Out Mirth."

All physicians agree that mirth and joy at meal time does much toward digestion. Mirth tingles the whole nervous organism of man, the cells wherein are stored valuable digestive juices, empty their contents under the nerve stimulation and promote the highest degree of digestion.

If gloom and discomfort prevail at table the reverse action obtains and meals become necessities, not anticipated joys.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are little storehouses of digestive juices which mix with the stomach juices, digest food, tone the mucous membrane and its nerve centers, give to the blood a great wealth of digestive fluids, promote digestion and stave off the stomach until all its duties are complete.

If dyspepsia sits at tables it makes the dining room a place of awe; these tablets should be taken after meals and dyspepsia of a consequence flee.

No need for diet or fasting. The dyspeptic who will use them religiously will find no sense of nausea in the sight of generous meals or in the odor of rich cooking.

It matters not what the condition of the stomach, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets only improve the juices and bring quiet to the whole digestive canal, of which the stomach is the center.

Forty thousand physicians use these tablets in their practice and every drug store sells them. Price 50c. Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address: F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

A marriage license was issued yesterday in Washington to Thomas L. Cole, of Fairfax County, and Florence E. Brown, of Washington.

Buena Vista, Va.—Harry and William Burks, of Glasgow, have about completed arrangements to install a cannery at Buffalo Station, five miles below this place.

The capacity will be 400 cases a day, and they expect to have the plant completed in time to operate this season.

Hagerstown, Md.—Judge M. J. Keedy yesterday appointed E. B. Hartle and H. H. Keedy, of Hagerstown, and A. W. Weatherly, of Philadelphia, receivers for the Buena Vista Ice Company. Application was recently made in court by creditors for the appointment of receivers. The condition of the company is alleged to be due to repeated failures of the ice crop. The company operated a large plant and controlled a large tract of land and Lake Royer at Blue Ridge Summit.

Richmond, Va.—Mr. and Mrs. James Hoge Crenshaw announce the engagement of their daughter, Rachel, to William Baxter French, of Parkersburg, W. Va. The marriage will take place early in April.

Staunton, Va.—A portrait of the late Alexander H. S. Stuart, who was Secretary of the Interior under President Polk, was unveiled in the Circuit Court room Monday. Stuart was a distinguished member of the bar in this section.

Portsmouth, Va.—This city is now the third in size in Virginia. It is a coast city, annexing to Portsmouth its suburbs has become operative. Portsmouth now has a population of between 40,000 and 50,000. Norfolk, her sister city, being separated only by the Elizabeth River, claims 75,000. Richmond leads the van with about 100,000 population.

Richmond, Va.—Robert Hill Bowers, aged twenty-seven, traveling passenger agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, is dead here.

Weldon, N. C.—Although badly stung and nervous as the result of the experience, the family of W. M. Carrall is believed to be on the immediate road to recovery, following the shock brought on by the burning of the Carrall home, "White Head."

The six-month-old infant which was rescued at the residence of Mrs. Carrall's life is unhurt. A negro boy was burned to death.

Mrs. Carrall lost nearly all her hair in the saving of the baby after she and her husband had escaped from the house in their night clothes.

Raleigh, N. C.—The Raleigh Good Government League has placed in the field a municipal ticket to oppose the administration ticket in the Democratic primaries to be held March 30. E. L. Harris was nominated for mayor; Alexander Stomach for police justice, and James A. Briggs for police commissioner. Joseph G. Brown, president of the Citizens' National Bank, is on the aldermanic ticket. James G. Johnson, a druggist, heads the administration ticket for mayor.

Salisbury, N. C.—A monument in honor of the Rowan County soldiers in the civil war will be unveiled by the Robert P. Hoke chapter, U. D. C., of Salisbury, on May 8. The shaft which is the result of eight years of hard work by the chapter will be erected in Innis street, one of the principal thoroughfares of Salisbury. An elaborate programme is in preparation for the event.

Salisbury, N. C.—April 3 has been named as the date for holding Salisbury's first legalized primary for the selection of candidates for mayor and aldermen. The date was changed from March 27 in order to give an opportunity for more entries for office. So far only one candidate, A. L. Snoot, has announced himself for mayor. It is now stated that only one ticket will be in the field, and that the ticket proposed to be named by the Good Government League will not materialize.

Richmond, Va.—The Evening News-Leader wants another candidate to enter the Democratic gubernatorial race, who will stand upon a local option platform. Editor Williams says Mr. Tucker and Mr. Mann are "fairly crowding each other to go on a prohibition platform, and with a slight difference in method each of them assumes the public that if elected governor he will make State-wide prohibition easy and comfortable." The paper then asserts the anti-prohibitionists or local option Democrats have no candidate to vote for unless the Republicans put forth a candidate on a local option platform.

Bluefield, W. Va.—Another appeal for the victims of the Two Lick Branch mine disaster has been sent out. It is shown that after three years and seventy-five children widows and orphans are left without means of support. The relief committee is aiming to raise $50,000. The Pocahontas Consolidated Collieries Company has contributed $5,000, and $5,000 has been raised from other sources.

Grafton, W. Va.—According to the Sentinel, there is some talk of former Gov. Dawson remaining in West Virginia, and not accepting the China mission offered by the Federal government. It is said that the former governor will stay in West Virginia and watch political developments, that is, if his health will permit him.

Cumberland, Md.—Anthony Lubman, one of the oldest residents of Cumberland, having resided at the same place on Maryland avenue for fifty-one years, is dead aged eighty-seven years. He was a native of Germany. He came to America in 1848.

Cumberland, Md.—Benjamin Franklin Hayes, aged fifty years, son of W. P. Hayes, killed himself at Confidence evening, while playing with a revolver which he supposed was not loaded.

Parkersburg, W. Va.—From a condition bordering on poverty and bankruptcy to an income of $25,000 a month, is the sudden turn of fortune has given to John Carroll, an Ohio farmer, who lives near the old fields of Sisterville, W. Va. The story of Carroll's good fortune is a long one.

About ten years or more ago, oil was struck on the farms of Carroll's neighbors. Experts, however, told Carroll that he was on the wrong side of the producers to be benefited by the strike. He had faith in his farm. He leased other lands and in vain endeavored to get operators to drill on it. The Carter Oil Company, a branch of the Standard, in West Virginia, refused to touch the lease. Finally, after ten long weary years of work, Carroll succeeded in financing a company to drill the well, and a 300-barrel well came in. Now Carroll is on the road to riches.

SEARCHING FOR WIFE.

Former Inmate of Asylum Fears She Has Deserted Him.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Staunton, Va., March 23.—T. B. Hickman, who was placed in the asylum for insane here last summer, but who was recently released from custody, is now in search of his wife, who he fears has eloped with another man.

Hickman alleges that his wife and a male friend had placed in an asylum to get rid of him, and denies that his mind was ever unbalanced. He is a well-to-do farmer from Bath County, and is sixty years old. His wife is only twenty-five.

He traced his wife to this city, he says, and declares they both agreed to drown themselves in the city reservoir, but when they reached the water's edge later evaded him, and now he is searching for her deliriously.

Storage Warehouse and Stable Is Destroyed.

Westminster, Md., March 23.—The storage warehouse and stable adjoining, owned by George W. Albright, and occupied by the Albright-Babylon Company, wholesale dealers in groceries, etc., in this city, were partially destroyed by fire, which started soon after 6 o'clock last evening.

The warehouse is a large structure, and both buildings are frame. They are surrounded by other inflammable structures, but the firemen kept the flames from spreading. The warehouse contained crockery, glassware, salt, etc. The insurance is $3,500, which, it is supposed, will fully cover the loss. Two large draught horses perished in the flames.

Warrenton Riders Turn Out for Fine Run.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Warrenton, Va., March 23.—The meet of the Warrenton Hunt Club this afternoon took place at Clifton Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Keith, and the finish was at Mr. Whites' place, adjoining, being an almost circular run. The run was stiff and the horses and hounds hunted well. The only two women riders out were Mrs. Peter R. Labrousse and Miss Wilbur, of Devon, Pa., both of whom finished in good form and well up with the hounds.

Others riding were as follows: T. L. Evans, mounted on "Cinderella"; J. D. Smith, riding whip on "Onion"; Mrs. Peter Labrousse on "Mignonette"; and Miss Wilbur on Mrs. Julian Keith's "Wisteria." Bernard Tyson on "Happy"; Mr. Hudson on "J. D. Tyson's "Dreadnought"; J. D. Hall on "The Lamb"; William F. Wilbur on "Nancy Lee"; Julian Keith on "Dunnator"; Dion Kerr on P. R. Labrousse's "Salisbury"; John P. Stone on "Jim Cracker"; J. P. Evans on Mrs. C. W. Smith's "Valiant"; and C. D. Strother on W. F. Jennings' "Jack Spratt."

MEN ROASTED ALIVE.

R. L. Armstrong Among Those Who Died in Launch Fire.

Portsmouth, Va., March 23.—Information has been received here of the burning to death of Richard Lee Armstrong, formerly of this city, during a gasoline explosion on Chukcrack Creek. Cridenten, Va. Mr. Armstrong was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Armstrong, of 143 Linden avenue, Frontis place.

Details of the accident are lacking. From what can be learned, Mr. Armstrong, with Edward Matthews and R. L. Skinner, left Cridenten about 7 o'clock in the evening for a tour of the creek. The explosion occurred three hours later, and Mr. Skinner was the only one of the trio to escape. The other two men—Armstrong and Matthews—were enveloped in the flames from the exploding tank, and practically roasted alive. Mr. Skinner managed to get the disabled craft to the river bank, and then set out for assistance. Mr. Armstrong was twenty-eight years of age, and is survived by his widow and his parents. He left no children.

ONCE MADE MONEY.

Maryland Rail Company Hurt by Unsettled Market.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Cumberland, Md., March 23.—It is not assured that the Maryland Rail Company, one of the leading industries of Cumberland, now in the hands of receivers, will immediately resume, because the receivers will not operate the plant at a loss and the unsettled condition of the present steel market owing to the tariff revision proceeding in Congress.

It is believed, however, with the restoration of normal conditions that the plant will resume and be a successful independent competitor of the steel trust. It has been a money maker.

In one year a dividend of over 100 per cent was declared, and at another time a dividend of 50 per cent. All this money went into the pockets of Cumberland people who financed the enterprise.

Howard H. Dickey, president of the company and now in the hands of receivers, was a hard worker, and since Mr. Dickey entered the steel and tin plate business in Cumberland he has paid out between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000.

The Maryland Rail Company paid high wages to an average of 300 operatives. Mr. Dickey made many personal sacrifices to keep the plant running in the face of the exactions of an uncertain and an unstable market, and what is called the relentless and extortionate competition of more powerful and allied iron and steel interests.

Instances have been cited of the pursuit of the local corporation by the steel trust that would indicate that it was the aim to crush it to death forever.

Hagerstown, Md., March 23.—Fire last night destroyed a large barn on the Maryland side of the Pennsylvania line, north of Clearfork. The building was the property of George W. Frost. The loss will reach several thousand dollars. The fire is supposed to have started from sparks from a traction engine passing along the road.
